POLICY

Country Roads Community Health Centre is committed to providing equal treatment with respect to employment according to the protected grounds established under the Ontario Human Rights Code (the Code). Country Roads Community Health Centre has adopted this policy to ensure that our employees, clients, students and volunteers are provided with meaningful employment that is ethical and fair, and is in compliance with all applicable employment, and human rights legislation. Our Human Rights Policy is in place to ensure we provide a working environment for all employees that fosters openness and tolerance. This policy is intended to ensure that Country Roads Community Health Centre's practices and the practices of all our employees are free from direct and indirect discrimination.
